Manteca, CA – Meet Lana McBroom, Acting Budget Manager. With nearly 18 years of service to the City of Manteca, Lana brings a wealth of knowledge, technical expertise, and passion to her new role.

Lana’s journey with the City of Manteca is not merely professional; it’s deeply personal. “I came to work for the City of Manteca because I grew up in this community and I love it,” Lana shares.

“My family moved to Manteca 40 years ago. Working in the City gives me a unique opportunity to make lasting positive impacts on the community in which I live.”

As Acting Budget Manager, Lana’s responsibilities encompass a wide spectrum of tasks, most notably ensuring sound financial management of City resources.

“My role includes supporting the development of our annual budget in collaboration with senior leadership and City officials, performing fiscal analysis, monitoring budget compliance, preparing financial reports, and contributing to strategic planning efforts.”

Beyond her professional duties, Lana remains deeply involved in the Manteca community. From her teenage years to adulthood, she has dedicated herself to various community activities and service projects.

Lana’s volunteer work includes initiatives with the Second Harvest Food Bank, Manteca Senior Center, and the Cpl. Charles O. Palmer III Memorial Troop Support Program, where she packed military care packages and donated essential items.

Lana also donates platelets and plasma for cancer treatment patients through The American Red Cross, exemplifying her commitment to helping others in need.

“Lana McBroom’s hard work, dedication, and leadership contributions are invaluable to the City of Manteca,” stated City Manager, Toni Lundgren. “We are fortunate to have Lana as part of Team Manteca, and we look forward to her continued service and impact on our community.”
